This exam form is used for the master's programme in Political Science and for single subjects for credit students.

To pass a seminar, the student must participate actively in the class and have achieved approval of one or several written reports. The written reports are compulsory and must be approved by the teacher for the student to pass the seminar. If a written report is not approved at the first attempt, it can be re-submitted up to two times in revised form. Re-submission takes place by agreement with the teacher. Please see the deadline for final approval below.

A further condition for passing the seminar is that the student has participated actively in the seminar, through satisfactory attendance, as well as active participation. As a minimum, the active participation must include one presentation of the student's own assignment(s) and one opposition to one of the other seminar participants' assignments. The assignment(s) is(are) prepared on the basis of an area chosen by the student, but related to the seminar topic.

Seminars are assessed by a teacher as a "Pass/Fail" or on the basis of the seven-point grading scale.

A seminar covers 7.5 ECTS credits and is passed on the basis of a syllabus determined by the teacher (see curriculum).

You can download a "Seminar form" from the Absalon course room. The seminar form is a solemn declaration that is used if literature is replaced with literature from the fixed syllabus. The form must be submitted to the teacher, or uploaded together with the assignment(s) in the Absalon course room.

The administration receives assessments from the teacher by no later than Friday, 26 January 2018 at 12:00 noon for the Autumn 2017 semester. The results will be published no later than one week after this date.
