

Jean Monnet Guest Lecture Series 2019

The EU as an International Actor

Location: Centre for Health & Science, University of Copenhagen, Room 7-0-28
For further information contact: hl@ifs.ku.dk or rhf@ifs.ku.dk

Friday 8 February 10-12

Henrik Larsen, Jean Monnet Professor, Department of Political Science, UCPH

European Union as an international Actor: An introduction

Friday 1 March 10-12

Jakob Øhrgaard, Political adviser at the European Commission's Representation in Denmark

The EU as an external actor: Does it make a difference

Friday 8 March 10-12

Christian Bayer Thygesen, European Correspondent, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark

How politics is made in the CFSP

- The view from a smaller member state as Denmark

Friday 15 March 10-12

Michael Friederich Kluth, Associate Professor, Department of Social Sciences and Business, RUC

EU foreign policy and its member states: tensions and possibilities

Friday 22 March 10-12

Jens Ladefoged Mortensen, Associated Professor, Department of Political Science, UCPH

The EU's trade agreements and working as a global market power

Friday 29 March 12-14

Peter Horne Zartsdahl, Major (R) and PhD Fellow, Department of Social Sciences and Business, RUC

Central issues and tensions in the EU's security and defense

Friday 5 April 10-12

Anders Persson, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Lund University

The diplomatic history of the European Union in the Israel-Arab conflict

Friday 12 April 10-12

Jarl Krausing, International Director, Denmark's green think tank Concito

The EU as an international actor in green politics

Friday 26 April 10-12

Stine Bosse, Chairwoman, Europabevægelsen

Between Brexit, Trump and Russia

- The role of the EU in today's global power politics

Friday 3 May 10-12

Erik Lundsgaarde, Senior Researcher, Global Transformations, DIIS

The EU as an international development actor in the global south

Friday 10 May 10-12

Ruxandra Lupu Dinesen (PhD), Analyst, The Danish Ministry of Defence

The EU and its policies and actions in its neighborhood